“The systematic abuses by Sri Lankan government forces are among the most serious imaginable.”

– Archbishop Desmond Tutu, 15 May 2008

Sri Lanka: Human Rights Issues and Media Representation

Tuesday, 10 November 2009  ♦  6 ~ 8 pm

Lecture Theatre K321 (Halstead Theatre)
3rd floor, Building K, Monash University Caulfield

Speakers:
- Associate Professor Rohan Bastin, School of History Heritage and Society, Deakin University
- Associate Professor Damien Kingsbury, School of International and Political Studies, Deakin University
- Associate Professor Jake Lynch, Director, Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies, University of Sydney
- Mr. David Manne, Co-ordinator of the Refugee & Immigration Legal Centre

Moderator: Professor Chris Nash, Department of Journalism, Monash University

For information: David Feith: 99034397 or david.g.feith@gmail.com